

Department of Homeland Security

§ 265.1

Center having jurisdiction over his or her place of residence. If the applicant's place of residence is outside the United States and there is no Service office in that foreign country, the application shall be filed by the applicant, in person, at the American Consulate with jurisdiction over his or her place of residence.

(ii) Data collection form. An applicant must execute the signature and fingerprint blocks of Form I-89, Data Collection Form, at a Service office when filing an I-90 application.

(3) Miscellaneous—(i) Fingerprinting. After filing an I-90 application, each applicant filing under paragraph (b)(8) of this section shall be fingerprinted on Form FD-258, Applicant Card, as prescribed in § 103.2(e) of this chapter.

(ii) Interview. An applicant may be required to appear before an immigration officer or consular officer and be interviewed under oath concerning eligibility.

(iii) Waiver of requirements. The Service may waive the photograph, in person filing, fingerprinting, and I-89 execution requirements of this section in cases of confinement due to advanced age or physical infirmity.

(f) Decision. If an application is denied, the applicant shall be notified of the reasons for denial. No appeal shall lie from this decision.

(g) Eligibility for a card while in deportation or exclusion proceedings. A person in exclusion proceedings shall be entitled to evidence of permanent resident status until ordered excluded. Such evidence shall be in the form of a temporary Form I-551 issued for a period sufficient to accomplish the exclusion proceedings. A person in deportation proceedings shall be entitled to evidence of permanent resident status until ordered deported or excluded. Issuance of an Permanent Resident Card to a person in exclusion or deportation proceedings, provided the person had status as a lawful permanent resident when the proceeding commenced, shall not affect those proceedings.
